To the Board of the Sullivan County Infrastructure
Local Development Corporation
Monticello, New York 12701

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Sullivan County Infrastructure Local Development Corporation as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Sullivan County Infrastructure Local Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements in accordance with Government Auditing Standards, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. This letter does not affect our report dated March 16, 2023 on the financial statements of the Sullivan County Infrastructure Local Development Corporation.

Minor comments and recommendations have been discussed verbally with the appropriate members of management.

We would like to thank the staff who assisted us during our examination, and provided us with all the necessary records.
